Important!

In the end you will feel richer because of your numerous new experiences, and savings with the Budapest Card! According to the current laws and orders, public transportation can be used freely, without any ticket in Budapest for every EU citizen above the age of 65.

The 2013 Budapest Card comes with an NFC system, which means the Card can be activated by swiping it at a terminal. Based on card activity, the issuers will be able to research customer activity, seeing which places and services are frequented. Thanks to this technology will enable the official tourism office of Budapest to get to know visitors a little better.

Review

“Well worth purchasing.”

Reviewed by Neil from Eastbourne, United Kingdom on December 23rd, 2012

Great card to have to enable you to have a hassle free tour of the city. It also intitles you to many discounts to attractions and restaurants . The card was waiting for me on arrival at my hotel which was brilliant as it saved time collecting it from the tour company.

“Walking tours of Budapest”

Reviewed by Jayne from Flitwick, United Kingdom on November 12th, 2012

I thought the walking tour guide was excellent very knowledgeable and her English was very good. This enabled us to see the sights we should not miss. The guide also pointed us in the direction of some good traditional restaurants reasonably priced. In all we were very impressed.
